

Friday 12th October 2018

Non-Uniform Day

There will be a non-uniform day next Friday, 19th October, to raise money for the second stage of our playground redevelopment. Children can wear their own clothes for a donation of £1. Thank you for your support and generosity.

Year 3 Rocks!

Year 3 had a visit from Professor Chris Jackson this week. The children got the chance to look at lots of different types of rocks and asked lots of questions. Thanks to Chris for volunteering his time to come and speak to the children.

DSA Update

The DSA annual general meeting is on 17th October at 8pm. All parents and carers are welcome. There will also be a DSA bake sale and bric a brac stall after school on Friday 19th October. All donations for both cakes and items to sell are gratefully received.

Rail Safety Assembly

On Tuesday next week, children will have a rail safety assembly with a representative from TfL rail. The children will learn how to stay safe when travelling on public transport.

Year 2 Trip to Gunnersbury

2 Jet and 2 Emerald went to Gunnersbury Museum for a Great Fire of London workshop today. The children had a fantastic time and learnt a lot about the fire. 2 Opal will be going next week. Thanks to the parents who volunteered to accompany the class on the trip.

Netball Competition

Seven of our Year 6 girls took part in an Ealing Borough netball tournament on Thursday. They were very supportive of each other and did a great job of getting into the final of their group, narrowly losing to the tournament winners. Well done girls and thank you to Mr Savage and Ms Robinson for taking them.

Year 2 Great Fire of London Assembly

Year 2 are going to be performing their Great Fire of London assembly on Tuesday at 9.15am in the Lower Hall. All parents are welcome!
