

English — Something Fishy

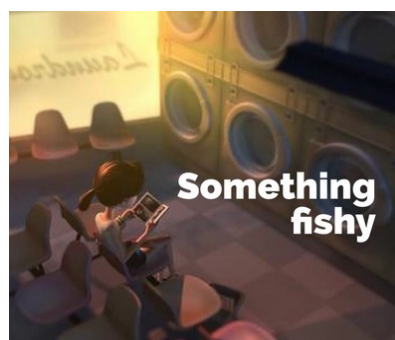

Introductory lesson: Is this really just a paper plate?

End of Unit Assessments:

LO: To write a fantasy story.

LO: To write an information report.

LO: To write a diary entry.

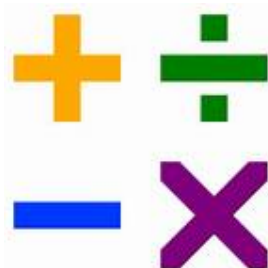

Maths

Units:

Place Value

Addition and Subtraction

Multiplication and Division

Year 3 Autumn 2

How will you turn the ordinary into the extraordinary??

History - Prehistory and the Stone Age

Introductory lesson: Prehistoric Cave Paintings

LO: To understand timelines

LO: To look at the lives of Stone Age people

LO: To compare the lives of Stone Age children to present day

Assessment: A day in the life of a Stone Age child (diary entry)

L.O. To make Stone Age bread

Maths link: Timelines, measuring ingredients.

Home Learning

Presentation: What is extraordinary about me?

Create a presentation describing what makes you special.

Events

Year 3 trip to Floating Classroom

November 6th & 7th Parents Evening

November 11th Remembrance Day

November 12th-16th Anti Bullying Week

November 17th-30th Switch Off Fortnight

Science — Rocks, Fossils and Soil Formation

LO: To understand how soil is formed.

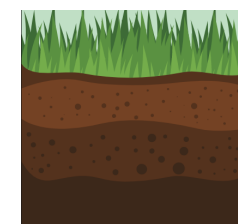

LO: To investigate the permeability of different soils.

LO: To record and present scientific findings.

Maths link: tables (statistics)

LO: To make information posters on rocks, fossils and soils.

LO: To make chocolate soil and gummy worms

Computing

Programming using Turtle Logo and Scratch.

PE

Invasion Games
Netball

Music

Rock n Roll

French

En classe (At school and in the classroom).

RE

Signs and Symbols