

Derwentwater Nursery | Friday 5th May 2021

Dear parents,

This week, the nursery children continued learning numbers and letters. This included practising writing their name and counting different objects they were playing with. This term, we are starting short daily phonics sessions and introducing one sound a week. Next week, we will be focusing on the sound that the letter 'm' makes. If you would like extra support in developing your child's early reading skills, the website Oxford Owl is a great resource. On Wednesday, the children made pipette drip paintings. They were fascinated to observe the paper towel absorbing their paint and discovering how the colours spread and blend into one another.

Library

We exchange library books every Monday and Friday. At Derwentwater we love to promote reading. We recently started a 'help yourself' library on the nursery gate. We kindly ask you to return the book when you have finished.
